Dear Rob

Thank you for your earlier emails regarding the various items of work in the churchyard, namely the new floodlight wiring, the new noticeboard and the bench.

I visited the church on 11th February and as the Inspecting Architect to St Mildred's I can confirm that the items described above have been completed/installed to a good standard; all in accordance with the faculty of 20th May 2019.

Kind regards
James Ford RIBA AABC

Subject: FW: Practical Completion Certificate

Dear James

I gather you are coming to St Mildred's Church next Tuesday. I'm afraid I cannot come along then, but could I ask you to look at the new floodlight wiring - there's actually very little to see, our new notice board - which is very obvious, and likewise the new bench please? I'd be grateful if you could then issue us with a Practical Completion Certificate to enable me to close off the faculty process.

If you need anything from me in advance of your visit, please let me know.

Best wishes

Rob
