

3. Interim Quinquennial Report	Jane read the interim report to the PCC members. It was agreed that the PCC will await the final report and discuss at the next meeting. January 2024. Rev Simon thanked Pat and Jane for their help.
4. Fabric	Transept: no further forward Steve will follow up on obtaining a quote and subsequent specification. Footpath: Steve read the DAC report to the PCC members, it was agreed that the note Rev Simon wrote will be submitted with a copy of this minute: “After lengthy discussion and debate The PCC Agrees that, given there is already a substantial extent concrete path, and that this concrete provides an affordable and safe surface for the churchyard, permission should be sought from the Chancellor to replace the remaining crumbling path with more concrete.” This minute was agreed unanimously by the PCC The minute was proposed by Jane White and seconded by John Hembrow.	SL
5. Worship	Jane suggested that the church hold a Sunday afternoon Tea following an afternoon service on Mothering Sunday next year, March 10th.	JW et al.
6. Social & Fundraising	The talk by John Clarke concerning his journey to New Zealand has been arranged for 2nd December 3pm. It will be made clear that the event is entirely about raising funds and that asking for donations for refreshments etc. rather than charging “entrance fee” will be more lucrative. To assist with this understanding Jane will provide a presentation of current fundraising needs the church, available on the day. A village Christmas card and Easter card was discussed and Rev Simon, will speak to Revd Sonya Setchell regarding this. He will also provide a costed draft. Carols in the Square will be held on Thursday 21st December with refreshments following in the church rooms. Open Gardens at Hillcrest will be held on Saturday 4th & Sunday 5th May 2024.	JW, SB
7. School Report	Simon Baldwin gave a school report. Christian values are very strong in the school and the school website is well worth a look. It is envisaged that the school will transfer to Academy status on 1st^t December, becoming a member of the Oak Partnership When this happens the local authority will no longer be responsible for the school. Funding will come directly from the Dept of Education. There will be
