Hi Richard,

I'm sorry to say that none of the cuttings that I took survived.

Hi Jonathan,

It is now a couple of years since we felled the notorious yew tree in the churchyard. Before it disappeared, I believe you took some cuttings, to plant in various places.

I need to report to the diocesan authorities in Worcester - can you let me know if any of the cuttings succeeded in rooting, and where they are now?

Best wishes - RichardB
