DESCRIPTION OF OBJECT 3 rd Edition of John Pearson's Exposition of the Creed, published 1669. (We know this is 3 rd edition – all subsequent editions had an engraved picture of Pearson inside the front cover, which this does not). Brown leather binding. The front bound cover is only attached to half way up. There is a tear in the leather binding at the bottom of the bookend that continues round to the back cover by about 2.3 cm. Previous owners have made notations and marginalia in pencil and ink. Some previous owners have written their names and dates on the flyleaves: the earliest is dated 1673. Others are barely legible and would repay closer study. The book was gifted to Stonegrave by the Rev Harold Pobjoy on his retirement in 1966. It has since been kept in the safe at the church.
Total number of items: 1 Current location: Church Safe, Stonegrave Minster.
REASON FOR ENTRY (Tick as applicable and sign.) ☒ Gift - I offer to give the object listed above to the Chapter of York. On the understanding that it will be kept in the current condition and made accessible and available for research purposes. The book is based on 11 Sermons delivered by Pearson at Eastcheap in 1659. His learned and detailed discussion, citing Greek, Latin and Hebrew original sources, constitutes a detailed academic rebuttal of Puritan and Quaker theology at the end of the Commonwealth. It should be remembered that Pearson was also one of the commissioners who reviewed the Book of Common Prayer prior to the 1662 edition, and much of his work on the "Exposition" is identifiable in the 1662 BCP. I confirm that the information given on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I accept the terms and conditions described overleaf and have been given York Minster Collections' privacy notice.
